"It's like Childs was born out of pink sandstone, given a mouth to speak, and has continued to defend his mother ever since.

You'll read this book in one night but you'll reflect on it for a lifetime."

— Anne Holman, The King's English Bookshop

From the author of The Secret Knowledge of Water and Atlas of a Lost World comes a deeply felt essay collection focusing upon a vivid series of desert icons—a sheet of virga over Monument Valley, white seashells in dry desert sand, boulders impossibly balanced. Writer and adventurer Craig Childs delves into the primacy of the land and the profound nature of the more-than-human.
